Historic Whispering Woods Hotel & Conference Center

making memories & shaping history since 1972

Whispering Woods Hotel and Conference Center has been extending warm hospitality to its guests for over 50 years.

Maintaining the tradition of caring for our guests in the true sense of “hospitality” has helped Whispering Woods stay successful for over half of a century.

Whispering Woods is on the National Archives of Historic Places for its historical architecture and for its history as an educational facility. Whispering Woods was the first building in the United States drawn using, computer-aided design, and it is still standing! Whispering Woods was built by a well-known hotel company. It was their first international training facility, hoteliers from around the world spent weeks at the facility learning how to better their businesses.

Let Whispering Woods be a part of your history. Contact our sales department to book your next event. We look forward to hosting your event with true southern hospitality.
